

Martinique / Antigua / Martinique: 15 days

Day 1: Le Marin

Welcome in the Marina (South of Martinique) and boarding for the night. Day 2: Le Marin / Anse d'Arlet: 15 miles

Navigation towards Petite Anse d'Arlet passing close to the Diamond Rock, lunch and swimming. First night at the anchorage at Grande Anse d'Arlet.

Day 3 : Anse d'Arlet / Fort de France/ Anse Mitan: 10 miles

Short sailing toward Fort de France. Lunch ashore, visit of the town, shops and local market. Bay crossing to spend the night at Anse Mitan.

Day 4 : Anse Mitan / St. Pierre: 15 miles

You skirt the Caribbean coasts of Martinique till Saint Pierre, former economic capital which was destroyed by Montagne Pelée eruption in 1902. Night in bay of St Pierre.

Day 5: St Pierre / Dominica: 54 miles

Set sail early for Portsmouth, Prince Rupert Bay. Visit the Indians River with the local guides. Night spend in the anchorage.

Day 6: Dominica / Les Saintes: 20 miles

After a sail from Portsmouth to Les Saintes, anchor first at Pain de Sucre for snorkelling. Anchor then for the night in front of Bourg des Saintes and have dinner ashore.

Day 7: Les Saintes / Guadeloupe: 26 miles

Set sail for Pigeon Island and pick up a mooring to visit the famous Reserve Cousteau underwater park. Snorkelling and diving . Sail for a night anchorage to Anse Deshayes.

Day 8: Guadeloupe / Antigua / 50 miles

Depart early morning for English Harbour. Take a walk among the beautiful restored houses and visit the museum. Ashore find all for provisioning, telephone, water and gas oil and Customs.

Day 9: Five Island / Five Island: 14 miles

A short sail along the west coast to Cade Reef. Snorkelling on a magnificent coral reef. Lunch anchored in Fries Bay. Enjoy a swim, relax and sail to the evening anchorage at Five Islands Harbour.

Day 10: Five Island / Barbuda: 43 miles

Sail to Barbuda, a fabulous unspoiled coral island. Anchor at Codrington, in front of a beautiful white sand beach, lunch, swim, snorkel, and stroll along the long deserted beach.

Day 11: Barbuda / Antigua: 40 miles

Depart early morning for Non Such Bay, small bay on the East coast of Antigua, wild and beautiful. Take the boat behind Green Island.

Day 12: Antigua / Ilet Gosier / 80 miles

Depart early morning for Ilet Gosier, East side of Guadeloupe. Nice surrounding with white sand beach and coral reef.

Day 13: Ilet Gosier / Marie / Galante: 18 miles

Set sail in the morning for Marie Galante, the emblem of the sugar past of the Guadeloupian Archipelago. Here, rum shows off its 59°! Mooring in front of the village of fishermen of "Grand Bourg". Visit of the island.

Day 14: Marie-Galante / Martinique: 90 miles

Leave Marie-Galante early morning for the last big sail to reach Martinique for lunch in Grande Anse d'Arlet. After sail to St Anne, a charming village with its boutiques, fishing boats and local market. Try one of the numerous restaurants.

Day 15: St. Anne / Marin: 2 miles

After a last swim in a heavenly bay (turquoise water, white sandy beaches) back to the Marina of Marin (30 min.) where the Dream Yacht team will take care of you.