

Martinique / Union / Martinique: 15 days

Day 1: Le Marin

Welcome in the Marina (South of Martinique) and boarding for the night.

Day 2: Le Marin / Anse d'Arlet: 15 miles

Getting used to the boat, provisioning, customs formalities, short navigation towards Anse d'Arlet, first night at the anchorage.

Day 3: Anse d'Arlet / St. Lucia: 32 miles

Early departure to Rodney Bay in St. Lucia. Crossing the channel may require visual navigation. Swimming and lunch on the island. Night in Marigot Bay, former hurricane shield now a bit crowded, so anchorage off the shore recommended.

Day 4: Marigot / Deux Pitons: 10 miles

Soft and easy navigation along the West coast of St. Lucia up to Soufrière, a picturesque village. Walking excursion through the city and the botanical garden, driving to the waterfalls, the hot water springs and the volcano. Overnight at Deux Pitons.

Day 5: Deux Pitons / Bequia: 50 miles

Navigation day down to Bequia (say "Bekoué"). Bequia, entrance to the Grenadines, is the former whale hunter's island. Anchorage in Admiralty Bay, facing the capital city Port Elisabeth. "Happy hours" at Frangipanier and dinner in one of the restaurants.

Day 6: Bequia / Mustique: 15 miles

Once customs formalities are done, short navigation towards Petit Nevis where the fishermen used to flense the whales. Then sailing to Mustique, the "Jet Set" island. Night outside the famous built on piles "Basil Bar".

Day 7: Mustique / Mayreau: 20 miles

Early morning touring of Mustique island, its beaches and villas. After lunch heading to Mayreau, anchoring at Salt Whistle Bay, a wonderful coconut trees beach (fabulous beach walking!).

Day 8: Mayreau / Tobago Cays: 2 miles

Short navigation to the Tobago Cays. Anchoring in the most beautiful Caribbean lagoon. Turquoise waters and white sand beaches, ideal for snorkelling, swimming and relaxing.

Day 9: Tobago Cays / Union: 5 miles

Early morning navigation (about 1 hour) to Union, the capital of the Grenadines: airport, hotels, restaurants, fruit and vegetables market, ship chandler, Internet Café etc..

Day 10: Union / Petit St. Vincent: 4 miles

Passing by Morpion, a little sandy island in the middle of the corals, anchoring at Petit St. Vincent (PSV). This hotel island is the perfect spot for a sunset drink at the bar under the bougainvilleas.

Day 11: Petit St. Vincent / Canouan: 12 miles

After breakfast heading to Canouan via Chatam Bay, a large natural bay west of Union, pleasant for having lunch. Night in Charleston Bay (Canouan).

Day 12: Canouan / St. Vincent: 32 miles

Sailing day to St. Vincent, night either in Cumberland or in Wallilabu Bay, where the movie "The Pirates of the Caribbean" was shot. Day 13: St. Vincent / St. Lucia: 55 miles

Last long navigation day up to North of St. Lucia. Night at Rodney Bay behind Pigeon Island. Possibility to visit the botanic park.

Day 14: St. Lucia / St. Anne: 23 miles

Last sailing to reach Martinique. Anchoring outside St. Anne village (pretty beaches) or outside Club Med.

Day 15: St. Anne / Marin: 2 miles

After a last swim in a heavenly bay (turquoise water, white sandy beaches) back to the Marina of Marin (30 min.) where the Dream Yacht team will take care of you.
